Culture: Family

Traditional Family

- Family is perhaps the most important part of Korean society.
- Patriarchal: father has the most power, followed by eldest male.
- Confucius beliefs: father takes care of health, shelter, food and marriage of family.
- Strong emphasis on Confucius teachings of duty, loyalty, honor, and sincerity.

Confucius says....

New Roles

- After the Korean War, the nuclear family structure is adopted.
- Children are raised to be more independent
- Women have gained more status and power.
- Both parents now share disciplinary power.
- Immense pressure on youths for a good education and career.

He attac.... Traditional gender roles

Issues with New Roles

- Split of familial ideas emerges between generations
- Technology and Westernization means the younger generation is more individualistic
- Breaking Confucius idea of elders being honored for their wisdom and KNOWLEDGE.

He protec respec of elders

Dating and Marriage

- Youths are often hesitant to approach individually, so they usually date in groups.
- Blind dates are common, arranged by mutual friends or parents.
- Korean couples celebrate anniversaries often, such as 100th, 200th, or 1000th day.
- The commercial sector has used dating and marriage in holidays such as Rose Day, Wine Day, and Kiss Day.

A close-up shot of a middle-aged woman with short, dark, wavy hair. She is smiling broadly, showing her teeth. She is wearing a black top over a floral patterned garment. The background is slightly blurred, showing what appears to be a kitchen cabinet.

엄마
(umma)

Mom

A close-up shot of the same woman from the first image. Her expression is one of shock or anger, with wide eyes and an open mouth showing her teeth. She is wearing a grey jacket and a pearl earring. The background is a bright, out-of-focus window. The MBC logo is visible in the top right corner.

어머니
(uh-muh-ni)

Mother

A man with a mustache, wearing a bright green suit jacket over a pink shirt, is celebrating. He has his eyes squeezed shut and a wide, toothy grin. He is making a hand gesture with his right hand, showing three fingers. The background is filled with falling white confetti, suggesting a party or a celebratory event.

아빠
(appa)

Dad

A man in a dark suit and tie is shown from the chest up. He has a serious, somewhat stern expression on his face. The background is slightly blurred, showing what appears to be an indoor setting with shelves and a poster. In the top right corner, there is a logo for 'KNN SBS HD'.
