

AED and SHPC present:

Curing a Sick System: Reforming American Healthcare

Come join AED, the Health Preprofessional Honor Society, and the Stevens Health Professions Club as we discuss current issues in the American healthcare system, and the possibilities that exist to fix it. Join Dr. Michael Steinmann, Stevens Professor of Bioethics, as we explore this unique and controversial subject. Cut through the bias of mainstream media, and prepare yourself for the questions leveled at you during medical school interviews.

Friday, November 13th
Babbio 122
Time: 11:30am to 12:30pm.

Free lunch!

Please contact avanders@stevens.edu or mizower@stevens.edu for further information.

We hope to see you there!
