

au·di·ence

(ô' dē-əns) n. better location than being on stage

We know you'd much rather hide in the back row. Come practice the art of public speaking to overcome this common fear!

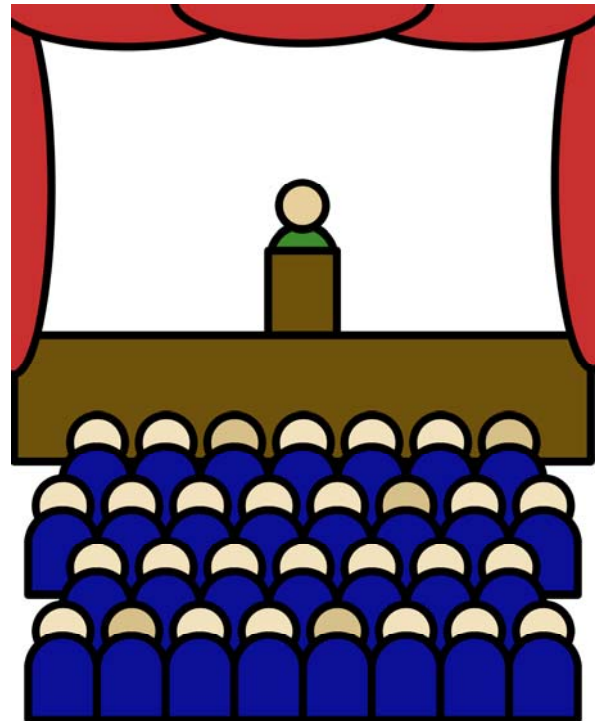

Impromptu Speaking

Recognize the pervasiveness of impromptu speaking: in interviews, in answering questions after a prepared speech, and in day-to-day conversation with others. Learn and practice techniques to improve coherence.

Presentation Skills

Understand DOs and DON'Ts when giving a prepared presentation. Practice giving a group presentation.

All participants are required to speak in front of the class. For this reason, the class size is limited. Please come prepared to speak.

Saturday Nov. 15th 10am-2pm

Fielding Room (3rd floor Howe)

Engineering Futures
Effective
Presentation Skills

Space is limited! RSVP to Garrett Joyal (gjoyal@stevens.edu) to secure your spot!

Sponsored by Tau Beta Pi